Fall Community Garage Sale

The Meadow Pointe II Fall Community Garage Sale will be here before you know it! MPII will be doing it on Saturday, October 3rd, from 8am – 2pm. As a reminder, this is one of only two opportunities per year for those in the gated villages to have the gates open for a garage sale. Plus, with dozens of sales throughout the community, we generate a lot of traffic through our villages. This sale is a fantastic way to clear some clutter and make a little extra cash while doing it.

Since it's never too early to prepare, here are a few tips you can start working on now to be ready for 10/3:

- Organize and prepare – in the weeks leading up, gather your "inventory" and place it together
- Price as many items as possible – use stickers, tape, tags – something. Pricing helps!
- Haggle! Many garage sale customers haggle. Remember your goal is to purge.
- Involve the kids! – A sale is a great opportunity to get rid of their old stuff too. Let them have some of the money for their items and put them to work.
- Bundle – Retailers do it, you should too. Put things together and price them as a group. You can always split them up later if necessary.
- Clean a little – No one wants to buy dirty, dusty, old things. Wipe everything down and clean things up a little before they go on display for sale.
- Have change ready – Small bills and quarters are especially helpful.
- Have a lot out! – If you don't have a lot, partner up with a neighbor or two and display together. Browsers often drive slowly through a village but only stop for "bigger" sales.

Also, Goodwill will have a truck standing by in the Clubhouse parking lot for any unsold items you'd like to donate. The truck will be here at or before 10 am and will stay until full. This is a great opportunity to have fun, clean house, make some donations, and make some cash!

September MPII Trivia

Trivia – With September, football is in full swing – middle school, high school, college, and the NFL. In that spirit, how many NFL teams have 2 or more Super Bowl wins without a loss in the Super Bowl?

Deed Restrictions

Deed Restrictions are often a challenging subject. For many residents, a community with deed restrictions is a draw – it's appealing to know that the community has standards and rules. It is reassuring that the community will always look nice, it ensures certain areas and levels of neighborly consideration and usually means property values will do well versus comparable areas without deed restrictions. This refers to all villages without HOAs, residents in HOA villages should refer to their HOA rules.

However, once we live within a community with rules and protocols, we all have to abide by them. And day-to-day life sometimes gets in the way and the next thing you know, you have received… 'a letter'.

The purpose of this article is to highlight some of the common deed restrictions that many residents have issues with more often than others, and to recommend ways residents can avoid getting a letter and having to quickly make corrections to avoid more significant consequences. Because, ideally, the rules and protocols of deed restrictions are things we all adhere to and no residents would ever have to deal with letters, fines, or worse.

Currently the most common issue the Board sees is with residents not properly dealing with their trash and recycling bins. MPII residents that are part of Coastal's pickups have the great luxury of three pickups per week, Tuesdays and Fridays for trash, and Wednesdays for recycling. But our community would be far less attractive and appealing if trash bins were out at the curb all week long of course. So, deed restrictions are in place to limit how long the bins are out, and where they can and can't be when not out for pickups.

Bins should be put out at the curb the night before a pickup and should be put away the day they are picked up (the earlier the better). Once bins are put away, they should be out of sight from the street and sidewalk. This can be inside a garage, behind the home, or on the side of the home such that they can't be seen. This could mean being behind shrubbery and plants, or a decorative enclosure, privacy screen, or corral. Many options are available from Amazon, The Home Depot, and Lowe's.

While trash bin related issues are the most common issue, another one that crops up often is mailboxes. While most residents maintain their homes perfectly well, it can be easy to overlook cleaning and maintenance of the mailbox. If your mailbox or mailbox post is dirty, clean it off. If you still have one of the older wooden posts and the wood is rotting or it is dirty beyond cleaning, then perhaps it is time to upgrade to the newer PVC posts – which are easier to clean and require far less frequent cleaning to... begin with. See the graphic (at right) for vendor info.

Next, all of us from time to time need to pressure wash the outside of our homes, and/or our driveways or walkups. Some residents like to do this themselves, but there are many area companies and handymen that can do this fairly quickly and for a reasonable fee.

If all our residents made a modest effort to ensure these three items were kept up with and kept in compliance, our community would consistently look fantastic, and almost no one would ever have to deal with… 'the letter'.

The Baltimore Ravens and OUR Tampa Bay Buccaneers! The Ravens and Bucs are both 2-0 in Super Bowls, with the Ravens winning SB XXXV (2000 season) and XLVII (2012 season), and the Bucs taking XXXVII (2002 season) and LV (2020 season).

September is National Hispanic Heritage Month (9/15—10/15)

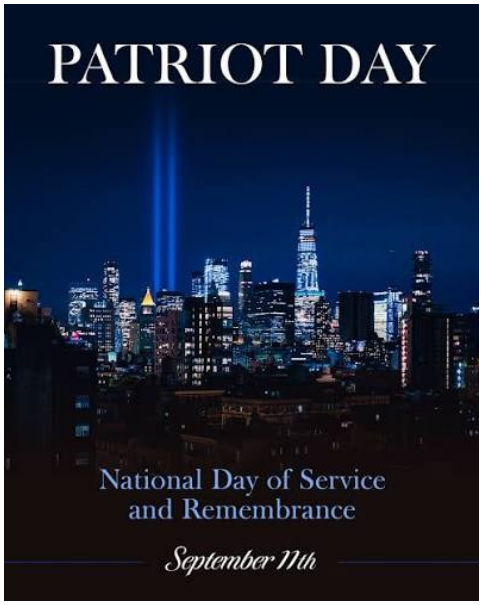

The 31 days from mid-September to mid-October commemorate the histories and contributions of the Hispanic American community, so MPII is choosing to honor Casimiro Hernandez Sr. Hernandez opened The Columbia in 1905 as a small corner café becoming famous locally for coffee and Cuban sandwiches. Over the years, the Columbia thrived and grew as future generations of the Hernandez (now Hernandez/Gonzmart) family continued to build the business. Today, the still family-owned Columbia is Florida's oldest restaurant and the largest Spanish restaurant in the world!

August Holidays

7th – Labor Day. Today is Labor Day, a holiday to celebrate the American worker. It's the unofficial end to summer, but here in the Tampa Bay area we will enjoy summer weather until Thanksgiving. MPII encourages all residents to have a safe and fun Labor Day weekend!

11th – Patriot Day. Today is the 25th anniversary of the September 11th attacks. While it is not a federal holiday (schools and most businesses will be open), flags will be at half-staff. A moment of silence will be observed at 8:46am and the day is designated as a National Day of Service and Remembrance.

12th – 13th – Rosh Hashanah. Sunset of the 11th is the start of Rosh Hashanah, the first of the High Holy Days in the Jewish religion. The holiday lasts until sunset on September 13th. Rosh Hashanah starts the New Year in the Jewish calendar and commemorates the traditional anniversary of the creation of Adam and Eve. Happy Rosh Hashanah!

21st – Yom Kippur. Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement, begins at sundown on the 20th and goes through 9/21 at sundown. This is the holiest day of the year in Judaism, where Jews will traditionally fast and pray for most of the 24-hour period seeking atonement and repentance. To all those that celebrate, have a meaningful fast. G'mar Hatima Tova.

22nd – Autumnal Equinox (Mabon). Today is the autumnal equinox (8:04 pm specifically), which marks the day where daylight and darkness are closest to equal (also occurs in March). The equinoxes and solstices have been sources of holidays and significant calendar days for humans dating back thousands of years. Wiccans celebrate Mabon at the Autumnal Equinox. Happy Fall!

25th – 10/2 – Sukkot. At sundown on the 24th Sukkot begins. This Festival of Tabernacles runs until nightfall on 10/2. The weeklong holiday is a celebration of the gathering of the harvest and God's protection of the children of Israel when they left Egypt. To all those that celebrate, have a wonderful holiday. Chag Sameach!

Outdoor Decorating

Just as a reminder to all MPII residents, in 2025 the CDD Board of Supervisors passed Resolution 2025-05 regarding outdoor holiday decorations. This resolution applies to all MPII villages except those with HOAs – those villages should check their HOA rules for outdoor holiday décor.

The resolution makes it policy for all MPII residents (except those with HOAs) to only put outdoor holiday decorations up one month prior to any given holiday. It also states that outdoor décor must be taken down and put away one month after a holiday.

We are reminding everyone about this because so many residents of MPII put forth a lot of effort decorating – especially for Halloween and Christmas – and both holidays are coming up. The purpose of the resolution is not to discourage the outdoor decorations – they are a wonderful part of living in our community. However, the resolution was created so residents don't have decorations out for inappropriate durations of time.

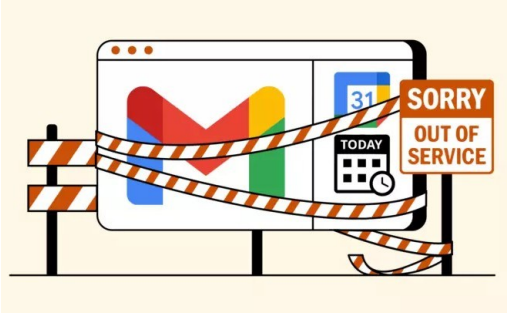

Most residents love to see the decorating, whether they celebrate the given holiday or not, but most residents don't wish to see the décor up all the time.

As a reminder, due to the amount of time it takes the Clubhouse staff to put up the community entrance decorations for the winter, they do have an exception to begin prior to Thanksgiving, but they won't be lit up until Thanksgiving weekend due to the Resolution and to comply like the individual residents.

The editorial staff of the MPII News can't wait to see everyone's holiday decorations as we enter the busy holiday season! Happy decorating!

MPII News Email List

Remember, if you'd like to be emailed the link to this newsletter each month so you don't have to remember to look for it on our Facebook page or our website each month, you can email newsletter@mpiicdd.org and opt-in. We will then email you the link each month.

Notably, we continue to have delivery issues with many Gmail addresses. So, if you're a Gmail user that has opted in for email distribution, please ensure that our emails are not going to your junk or spam filters. It might help if you make the address newsletter@mpiicdd.org a contact in your Gmail account as well.

If neither of these solutions work, you can attempt to contact Gmail or Google to notify them that you are having issues receiving our emails. Or, if it is simpler, we do post the link monthly on our Facebook page and we post the newsletter in it's entirety on the MPII website each month on or near the 1st.

Upcoming MPII EPC Events

The next MPII Events Planning Committee (EPC) event is THIS month! On Saturday, September 19th at 8am, the EPC and as many MPII volunteers as we can gather will be spending the morning participating along with dozens of other groups all over Pasco County in the Keep Pasco Beautiful Day cleanup.

This is an annual event (there are other cleanups as well at other times of the year), where citizens volunteer to clean up areas throughout Pasco County. Volunteering for the cleanup is easy, supplies are provided, and it's a great way to get some steps in, meet and socialize with like-minded neighbors, all while improving the area we call home.

It's also a fantastic opportunity for teenagers who need to accrue volunteer hours toward their Florida Bright Futures scholarships. Friends and families can volunteer together as well. If you'd like to commit to volunteering for this great event, please email epc@mpiicdd.org to sign up. You may even score a free tee shirt for participating!

The next event after the Cleanup is going to be the phenomenal annual event: the Halloween Festival! This year's festival will take place on Saturday, October 17th, so mark your calendars. Also, this great event cannot happen without LOTS of help from amazing volunteers. Last year we had many volunteers on Friday (setting up), Saturday (more set up and during the event – hosting stations and scare actors for the haunted maze!), and Sunday (clean up). We had volunteers from high school age all the way to seniors and we're counting on a small army of volunteers again this year! Use the above EPC email address to sign up to help with this exceptionally fun event.

Later in the year we will also be hosting the annual Breakfast with Santa. That is slated for Saturday, December 5th. Details will be coming out in future issues of MPII News.
